Contract and Clauses

GENERAL CONDITIONS CELEBRATION OF EVENTS IN PALMA AQUARIUM

First: Palma Aquarium (hereinafter PAQ) is committed to faithfully serve the menu reflected in the budget, to follow the agreed guidelines of the event, and to provide qualified staff according to the events characteristics.

Second: PAQ will not be responsible for any theft that may occur during the event, or any material, object, or equipment left or forgotten in our facilities at the end of the event.

Third: In case of finding any lost or forgotten belongings, the client will be notified, and has a period of 30 days to pick it up. The non-collection within this period will enable PAQ to get dispose of it

Fourth: The use of firecrackers, fireworks, rice, loose balloons, pigeons, lanterns etc., is not permitted within the venue.

Fifth: Any damage caused to the property of PAQ, including furniture, plants, fish tanks, etc. will be charged onto the event invoice for the amount of its repair or replacement.

Sixth: Seven days prior the event, the final number of guests and special menus to be prepared will be confirmed: (food allergies, specific diets, etc). Otherwise, PAQ can not commit to serve such dishes on the day of the event.
The distribution of tables and guests (seating plan) also has to be confirmed at the same time.

Seventh: The events celebration timeline agreed between all parties, will be included in the budget and may not be extended with overtime unless requested in writing at least seven days prior to the event date. In any case, the latest an event may finish at PAQ is 4 am, provided that this schedule has been previously contracted.

Eighth: If, due to extraordinary circumstances, technical breakdowns or other situations that PAQ cannot resolve and which force the contracted location to be changed, the substituted location will one of similar characteristics, previously communicating to the client as soon as possible

Ninth: It is strictly forbidden to access PAQ facilities, with drugs, narcotic substances or similar. The signer of the contract will be responsible for any illegal, harmful, inappropriate or annoying conduct on the part of the events participants. PAQ reserves the right to take the most appropriate actions if these situations occur, such as the cancellation of the event, contact security bodies and also claim of damages, etc.

Tenth: For reasons of force majeure that affect the facilities (fire, floods etc.) PAQ reserves the right to cancel the event, which may be held at a new date agreed with the contractors.

Understanding force majeure causes by any situation or unforeseeable event, exceptional or beyond the will of the contracting parties, which prevents PAQ from carrying out the contractual obligations committed in the budget.

DEPOSITS AND PAYMENT POLICY

Eleventh: An initial deposit will be established in accordance with the rates established by PAQ (€ 300 in the case of Communions, € 450 in the case of Weddings and 10% of the total invoice for the rest of the events), as a reservation of date and signing of contract. This deposit will be deducted from the total invoice, but will not be returned if the contracting parties suspend the event, unless it is due to provable force majeure (see Clause Fourteenth)

Twelfth: Seven days before the event PAQ will receive 90% of the total budget price.. The remaining amount, as well as any extra costs that may arise will be paid no later than seven days after the event, unless otherwise agreed with PAQ that must be collected in writing and annexed to the contract.

Thirteenth: The payment of the total amount of the price of the event included in the contract will not be reduced in the event in a case where a smaller number of the attendees foreseen in the contract attend the event, the contracting party therefore has to pay the total price of the contract. If, on the other hand, a number of people exceeds the guaranteed minimum, PAQ will invoice for the total number of the assistants. The contractor will be able to verify during the celebration of the event the number of assistants along with the PAQ member of staff in charge of the service. PAQ will not accept claims for the number of attendees once the event is over.

CANCELLATION POLICY OR REDUCTION OF SERVICES

Cancellation of the event or a reduction in event services must be reported in writing to PAQ as far in advance as possible.

Fourteenth: In no case will any down payment received be returned, unless the following circumstances arise.

In the case that the event cannot be held due to provable force majeure causes that directly affect the contractors or the event actors, such as death, serious illness of the direct family or similar, PAQ commits to hold the event at a later date agreed with the contractors that does not affect the planning of events already scheduled. The postponed event will have the same characteristics as the event originally contracted. The cancellation of an event without provable causes of force majeure that justify it, will mean the loss of all payments made by the contractors.

The cancellation of an event due to probable force majeure causes and reported to PAQ in less than seven days within the date of the event, will suppose the payment of the non-recoverable costs that PAQ has had due to the cancellation. If the event does not occur voluntarily at a later date than initially planned by the contracting parties, they will have to assume the cost of non-recoverable expenses for the cancellation of the event, plus the remaining 50% of the amount delivered as payment for the event to compensate the damages caused.

Non-recoverable costs are, all those that PAQ have had as a result of the organization and preparation of the event such as, food raw material, cost of staff hours, costs of external staff hired for the event, assembly of the room, technological means prepared for the event, staff and entertainment equipment such as DJ and stereo, etc.

Fifteenth: Any discrepancy in the interpretation or application of this contract not resolved amicably within 20 calendar days will be committed to the arbitration of the Chamber of Commerce of Mallorca, whose opinion will be binding on both parties, expressly waiving any other abbacy or Jurisdiction that could correspond to both parties.
